Sample Essay #1 – Score of 2

I think we are imited in the choices we as people can make because we cant just go out into the world and start doing things we are not supposed to do. There will always be a line we will never be able to cross. because life is all about making the right choices and following the government rules because we are not free, if we were to be free the government wouldnt control us just like they do know. they cant leave us free because there are people that are out of mind because

It depends on how each person acts and decides to make the right choices. There are some people that are not capable of being 100% free and they make the wrong choices. even if each person is responsible of their actions. That is why there are set daily and you couldn t go out side of what has been set, then i do think that problems would start occuring. The oppurtunity of Free Choice is an amazing gift that people either take advantage of and help adavance them selves with or throw away with a single bad choice. Either way we are still free to make our own choices and i think that will stay that way for a little while longer.
